

Exam 1

Wednesday February 14th, 2024

Logistics – exam will be administered on paper in lecture

- Exam will given in-person, on paper, in class – Anderson Hall 330
- During Lecture 8 (11:15am– 12:30 pm), Wednesday, February 14th
- You can use your computer – and anything you can store on your hard disk, or other external media attached to your computer.
  - Lecture slides and examples
  - PDF files of zyBook chapters
  - Homeworks
- You can bring in any printed material to use as a reference (on paper – books, notes, etc.)
- No internet, blue-tooth, or wi-fi while you are taking the exam, whatsoever. That means no links to external websites or other external resources in the slides, no use of search engines, or generative AI tools (e.g., ChatGPT)
- No other electronics – phones, VR glasses, headsets, calculators, etc. Everything put away and turned OFF
- If we catch you using the internet, you get a zero. End of discussion.

Materials containing the Scope of Topics Covered by the Exam

- Zybooks HW 1,2,3, and 4
- Homeworks 1 and 2
- Lectures and in-class exercises from Lectures 1-8
- Stuff on links Lecture slides in Lectures 1-8

Key Events in the Evolution of the Internet and the World Wide Web

Uniform Resource Locators, HTTP, and the Get and Post methods

HTML

CSS

JavaScript and the Document Object Model (DOM)

Format (I'm not sure yet) - possibilities

- True False
- Multiple Choice
- Short answers and/ or code snippets on different topics we have covered so far
- Find and Fix / or variants on that theme
- Create (layout and structure), style and add behavior to a web page (so, HTML, CSS, and JavaScript)